- Digital library books require an active Wi-Fi connection for wireless delivery to a Kindle device. Library books will not be delivered via your Kindle's 3G connection.
- Kindle automatically backs up all of your notes and highlights. If you choose to purchase the book at a later date from the Kindle Store or check it out again, all your notes and highlights will be preserved.

Expiration Date: December 20, 2013

You may end your Library Loan early by visiting Manage Your Kindle and choosing "Return This Book" or return the book now by clicking below.

How does this work?

Anybody can read Kindle books— even without a Kindle device— with the FREE Kindle app for smartphones and tablets.

At this point you will be prompted to log into your Amazon account. Do so at this time.

(button’s location is different depending on the type of Kindle)

Click the “Sync” button.

After a moment you device should Sync with your Amazon account and your ebook should now be on your device.

Click on you book menu, select your new book, and start reading.

Congratulations!

You have all just checked a Library ebook!

Now the only question is....

How do I return it?

This step varies by device so pay close attention.

For devices that are connected to WiFi your book will disappear off your device when your checkout time is up.

If you finish reading the book early and want to return it here is how.

Go to Amazon.com and log in.

Scroll down till you find the “Manage Your Kindle” button.

Click it.
